

INFORMATION NOTICE

WORKFORCE SERVICES

Number: WSIN13-20

Date: October 11, 2013
Expiration Date: 11/11/15
50:226:lp:16484

TO: WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COMMUNITY

SUBJECT: VETS101 WEB-BASED TOOL TRAINING

The Employment Development Department (EDD) invites you to participate in the upcoming training on the Vets101 web-based tool. The EDD is hosting limited training sessions that provide an in-depth review of the content found within the Vets101 website. The Vets101 is a free online resource to help veterans navigate important career and financial decisions. The World Institute on Disability (WID) developed this tool with support from the EDD and other workforce development partners.

The following dates and locations are confirmed:

Date: October 15, 2013
Location: Rancho Santiago
Community College District
2323 North Broadway, Board Room 107
Santa Ana, CA 92706

Date: October 16, 2013
Location: Santa Maria EDD
1410 South Broadway
Santa Maria, CA 93454

While specific locations have not been determined, the following additional training dates are confirmed:

November 19, 2013 - Northern Division
November 21, 2013 - Northern Division
January 21, 2014 - Los Angeles/Ventura Division
January 23, 2014 - Los Angeles/Ventura Division

For more information on the training dates and locations contact Oscar Amaya, Southern Division at (951) 955-3649; Joe Carlotti, Northern Division at (916) 227-0313; and Gene Chu, Los Angeles/Ventura Division at (213) 620-3560.

For detailed information on training components, review the previous Vets101 Information Notice. Please contact Bryon R. MacDonald, Program Director for the WID at (510) 225-6304, or via e-mail at bryon@wid.org for any technical questions pertaining to the content or functionality of the Vets101.

/S/ JOSÉ LUIS MÁRQUEZ, Chief
Workforce Services Division