IMPORTANT:

Check this notice carefully to make sure that all employers you worked for in the calendar quarters shown, (on the reverse page in item 12) are listed and that the wages you earned are shown. If an employer is listed and you did not work for them, or if an employer is not listed, or your wages are incorrect, contact an EDD office immediately to protest the accuracy of the computation. You may be subject to disqualifications, overpayments, and/or criminal penalties for failure to notify the EDD immediately of any inaccurate employment and wage information displayed in item 12.

If you worked for a federal agency your wages must be requested from that federal agency. You will receive a Notice of Amended Unemployment Insurance Award with these wages added.

If this notice or amended notice is incorrect and you want to protest the accuracy of the computation or recomputation, you must contact the EDD within 30 days after the mail date of the notice or amended notice. Otherwise, a wage investigation or recomputation of wages may be denied. The 30-day period may be extended for good cause. If you need to contact the EDD, you will need to provide your full name, address, and Social Security number and, if necessary, any wage and employment information you would like to add to your claim, or to remove any employers for whom you did not work and earn wages.

HOW TO CANCEL A UI CLAIM

You have an option of cancelling a regular California UI claim after you have been mailed your Unemployment Insurance Award notice. If you want to cancel your claim, you need to contact the EDD right away. Do not certify for UI benefits using UI OnlineSM, EDD Tele-CertSM, or by submitting a paper Continued Claim Form, DE 4581. The law only allows you to cancel a UI claim if no benefits have been paid, no notice of disqualification has been mailed to you, no overpayment has been established on the claim, and the benefit year of your claim has not ended. If the claim is cancelled, it cannot be reopened. You must file a claim with a later date.
