FILING A DRAFT

If you begin the on-line process to submit an Initial Claim Form for Bonding, DE 2501F, you may save your progress as a draft, to complete at a later date. Your draft copy will be maintained for thirty (30) calendar days. After that thirty (30) day period the draft will be deleted and you will be required to begin a new application. All available information will be considered before paying or disqualifying your claim. Benefits will be paid only for the days to which you are eligible. If payment of benefits is denied or reduced, you will receive a written notice stating the reason.

Note: It may be necessary to send some documents via US Postal Service. This includes Paid Family Leave (PFL) payments and PFL claim-related forms.

When contacting PFL through the mail, include your name and Social Security number on all correspondence.

YOUR RIGHTS

Information about your claim will be kept confidential, except for the purposes allowed by law. California Civil Code, section 1798.34, gives you the right to inspect any personal records maintained about you by EDD. Section 1798.35 permits you to request that the record be corrected if you believe it is not accurate, relevant, timely, or complete. Certain types of information that would generally be considered personal are exempt from disclosure to you: medical or psychological records where knowledge of the contents might be harmful to the subject (Civil Code, section 1798.40); records of active criminal, civil, or administrative investigations (Civil Code, section 1798.40).

If you are denied access to records which you believe you have a right to inspect or if your request to amend your records is refused, you may file an appeal with the PFL office. You may request a copy of your file by calling the PFL office.

You also have the right to appeal any disqualification, overpayment, or penalty. Specific instructions on how to appeal will be provided on any appealable document you receive.

Window Snip

Applying for Paid Family Leave (PFL) Initial Claim Form for Bonding (DE 2501F)

Please read these instructions and information before completing the electronic Claim for Paid Family Leave (PFL) Benefits (DE 2501F). Do not complete this claim form if you are insured by a Voluntary Plan maintained by your employer. (Ask your employer for the proper forms.)

The Paid Family Leave (PFL) program provides affordable, worker-funded benefits to eligible workers suffering a full or partial loss of wages due to the need to care for a seriously ill family member, to bond with a new child or assist with matters related to a family member's military deployment to a foreign country.

(B) Call 1-877-238-4373 for required forms and instructions if:

1. A disability prevents you from completing the claim form and you need to designate a representative to sign for you.
2. You are an authorized representative filing for benefits on behalf of a physically or mentally incapacitated care provider/care recipient or a deceased care provider/care recipient.

Do NOT submit an electronic PFL Claim for bonding if the purpose of your family leave is to care for a seriously ill family member. Follow these instructions to file for a Paid Family Leave Care application.

1. Select New Claim.
2. Choose Paid Family Leave Care.

INELIGIBILITY:

You may apply for benefits even if you are not sure you are eligible. If you are found to be ineligible for all or part of a period claimed, you will be notified of the ineligible period and the reason(s) why you were not eligible. Below are some reasons why you may not be eligible for benefits:

- If you are claiming or receiving Unemployment Insurance or Disability Insurance (DI) benefits.
- If you are receiving workers' compensation benefits at a weekly rate equal to or greater than the PFL rate.
- If you are in custody of law enforcement authorities because you were convicted of violating law or ordinance.

FRAUD:

If you are eligible for further benefits, additional payments will either be sent automatically or in response to your submitted certification, whichever is appropriate to your claim. You will be paid 1/7 of your weekly benefit amount for each calendar day you are eligible unless benefits are reduced for some reason. (See Calculating Paid Family Leave Benefit Payment Amounts for more information.)

TAXABILITY OF BENEFITS: Paid Family Leave benefits are subject to federal income taxes and will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service. Each person receiving PFL benefits will receive a 1099G form to include with his/her federal income tax return. PFL benefits are not subject to California income taxes.

OVERPAYMENT: An overpayment results when you receive PFL benefits you were not eligible to receive. Once PFL determines that you were overpaid, the PFL office will contact you to explain the reason for your overpayment. It is important that you complete and return all information requests, as there are some instances when an overpayment can be waived. If it is determined that you were overpaid and the overpayment cannot be waived, you must repay this money. Benefit payments issued after an overpayment is established may be reduced by 25 to 100 percent to collect your payment. You will receive a "Notice of Overpayment Offset" if a reduction is taken for a DI, PFL, or Unemployment Insurance (UI) overpayment.

DISQUALIFICATION: All available information will be considered before paying or disqualifying your claim. Benefits will be paid only for the days for which you are eligible. If payment of benefits is denied or reduced for any period, you will receive a written notice stating the reason for the disqualification or reduction.

If you deliberately report incorrect information, willfully omit or withhold information, a false statement disqualification of up to 92 days may be assessed. In addition, any resulting overpayment may be increased by a 30 percent penalty. This penalty can apply to benefits you received but were not entitled to, even if the payment has not been cashed.

☒ I have read and understand the instructions above. I understand that failure to supply any or all information may cause delay in issuing benefit payments or may cause a denial of benefits. If I make any false statement or misrepresentation or knowingly withhold of a material fact to obtain or increase any benefit or payment, EDD will disqualify me from receiving benefits and/or services and may initiate criminal prosecution against me.
