The document is in Khmer and describes a notice related to unemployment insurance in California. It contains information about the process for appealing a determination or assessment, which is related to disaster unemployment assistance (DUA) and regular unemployment insurance. The notice includes contact information for the Employment Development Department (EDD) and instructions for filing an appeal or requesting a hearing.

The text is provided in a natural language format, which means it is written in plain text without any formatting or design elements.