

Explanation of the Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account (DE 2088) for the Period Shown on Your DE 2088

The Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account (DE 2088) informs you of your Unemployment Insurance (UI) and Employment Training Tax (ETT) contribution rates for the period shown on your DE 2088, as well as the website where the State Disability Insurance (SDI) rate can be found. It also shows the items used to determine your UI rate and the balance in your UI reserve account shown on line 15 of your DE 2088. For more information on experience rating or any further questions, refer to Information Sheet: California System of Experience Rating \(DE 231Z\) \(PDF\) (edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de231z.pdf), visit your local Employment Tax Office (edd.ca.gov/Office_Locator) listed in the California Employer's Guide \(DE 44\) \(PDF\) (edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de44.pdf), or call the Taxpayer Assistance Center at 1-888-745-3886 or TTY at 1-800-547-9565.

Issued Date

This is the official mail date for the Notice of Contribution Rates and Statement of UI Reserve Account for the period shown on your DE 2088. Due to bulk mailing, some notices are mailed prior to this date.

Your Employer Payroll Tax Account Number

This is the eight-digit number assigned to you when you registered as an employer with the Employment Development Department (EDD). This number is assigned to you for UI, ETT, SDI, and Personal Income Tax (PIT) purposes, as well as for Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA) recertification purposes. Refer to your employer payroll tax account number (shown as Account ID on the DE 2088) when making inquiries about your account.

Contribution Rates

UI Contribution Rate - This is your UI contribution rate for the period shown on your DE 2088. New employers are assigned a 3.4 percent UI rate for a period of two to three years. This will depend on when the employer meets the criteria under section 982(b) of the California Unemployment Insurance Code \(CUIC\) (leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/codes). After that, an employer's contribution rate is determined by their experience rating and the condition of the UI Fund.

UI Rate Schedule - Section 977 of the CUIC mandates which Contribution Rate Schedule is in effect. Each year, the schedule is determined by the ratio between the UI Fund balance on September 30 and the total wages paid by all employers. When this calculation produces a ratio of less than 0.6 percent, the rate the employer would have paid in Schedule F is multiplied by 1.15, rounded to the nearest tenth, as mandated by section 977.5 of the CUIC. All tax-rated employers are rated under the same schedule. A copy of the Contribution Rate Schedule is on the last page of this explanation sheet.

To determine your rate, find your reserve ratio (shown on line 17 of the DE 2088) on the assigned UI rate schedule (e.g., on Schedule F, ratio .129 would be 2.7 percent). When the ratio between the UI Fund balance and the total wages paid by all employers is less than 0.6 percent, rates in Schedule F are multiplied by 1.15 (e.g., 2.7 percent multiplied by 1.15 equals 3.1 percent).

ETT Rate - Employers whose UI reserve account balance is positive (zero or greater) pay an ETT of 0.1 percent. Employers whose UI reserve account balance is negative (shows a minus sign before the amount) do not pay ETT and it is shown as 0.0 percent on the notice. Exception: Employers subject to section 977(c) of the CUIC.

SDI Contribution Rate - Visit SDI information (edd.ca.gov/tax-rated-employers).

Annual Taxable Wage Limits

UI and ETT are paid on the first wages earned by each employee per calendar year up to the annual taxable wage limit shown on your DE 2088.

Right to Protest

Any item on the DE 2088 may be protested except SDI and ETT, which are specifically set by law. To protest online, visit the EDD e-Services for Business (edd.ca.gov/eServices). You must provide a valid Letter ID with the associated tax rate year you are protesting, and it must be submitted within 60 days of the issued date on the notice. A protest may also be filed in writing and must be postmarked within 60 days of the issued date on the notice. Include your employer payroll tax account number, the specific items you wish to protest, and the reason you are protesting. To request an extension of up to 60 days, it must be in writing and show good cause. Mail your written protest or request for an extension to:

Explanation of the UI Reserve Account by Line Item:

1. Previous Reserve Balance - Shows the ending balance in your UI reserve account as of the date shown on your DE 2088.
2. UI Contributions Paid - Shows the total of all UI contributions paid by you for the period shown on your DE 2088.
Note: The ETT paid is not considered UI contributions and is not included in this figure. When allowed, voluntary UI payments are included but cannot be taken as a credit on any tax return.
3. Interest Earned by UI Fund - Shows the amount credited to positive UI reserve accounts for interest earned on the UI Fund. Employers with a negative UI reserve account balance as shown on line 15 of your DE 2088, do not receive a portion of these interest earnings.
4. Negative Balance Reduction - Shows the amount of your negative UI reserve balance canceled per section 1027.5 of the CUIC.
5. Benefit Overpayments Collected - Shows the amount credited to your UI reserve account for overpayments recovered from claimants who were overpaid UI benefits because of error or fraud.
6. Positive Reserve Account Balances Canceled - Shows the amount credited to your UI reserve account as the result of the cancellation of positive UI reserve accounts. Whenever an employer ceases to pay wages, the UI reserve account (unless transferred to a successor's account) is canceled after a period of three consecutive years. Each year, the total of the canceled UI reserve accounts with positive balances is prorated to all employers' accounts.
7. Other Income - Shows your share of money deposited into the UI Fund from other sources.
8. Total Credits - Shows the total of all the items added to your UI reserve account from line items 2 through 7 above.
9. UI Benefits Charged - Shows the amount of UI benefits paid to your former employees for the period shown on your DE 2088. This amount should agree with the amount shown on your Statement of Charges to Reserve Account (DE 428T). These charges may also be because of a UI reserve account transfer. For partial transfers, the successor will not receive the DE 428T.
10. Increase in Negative Reserve Balances - Shows the amount of prorated charges to your UI reserve account because of the increase in the total of all negative UI reserve account balances.
11. Benefit Overpayments Established - Shows the amount of prorated charges to your UI reserve account as a result of UI benefit overpayments established.
12. UI Benefits not Charged to Reserve Accounts - Shows the amount that has been charged to your UI reserve account because of CUIC provisions relieving individual UI reserve accounts of charges under certain conditions. Each year, the total of all benefit charges not charged to individual UI reserve accounts is accumulated and prorated to all employers.
13. Other Expenses - Shows the amount of prorated charges to your UI reserve account for miscellaneous expenses of the UI Fund.
14. Total Charges - Shows the total of all the items subtracted from your UI reserve account from line items 9 through 13 above.
15. Your new UI reserve balance shown on your DE 2088:

Previous Reserve Balance	(line 1)
Plus, Total Credits	(line 8)
Minus, Total Charges	(line 14)
New Reserve Balance	(line 15)
16. UI Taxable Payroll - Shows the total of all UI taxable wages reported on your Quarterly Contribution Return (DE 3D), Employer of Household Worker(s) Annual Payroll Tax Return (DE 3HW), or Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (DE 9) for the years shown on your DE 2088 and any adjustments made to the taxable wages for those years. An increase in UI taxable payroll may result in an increase to your UI contribution rate.
17. Reserve Ratio - Shows the ratio between your UI reserve balance and your average base payroll.

Reserve Account Balance	=	Reserve Ratio
Average Base Payroll

To determine your average base payroll, divide the UI taxable payroll on line 16 by the number of years of UI taxable payroll history within the three years shown on your DE 2088.

UI Taxable Payroll	=	Average
3, 2, or 1 (depending on taxable payroll history)		Base Payroll

Note: If taxable wages are reported in at least one quarter of a year, that is considered a full year with wages.

The UI taxable wages for the time period shown at the bottom of the DE 2088 are used to calculate the prorated credits and charges.

Minimizing Your UI Rate

- Work with your employees to avoid separations. Every discharge has the potential to increase your contribution rate.
- When a layoff is unavoidable, contact your local EDD office for assistance in finding work for your displaced workers.
- Respond in time to all claim notices. Failure to respond may cause you to lose future protest rights.
- If possible, offer former employees a job when you are notified they are drawing UI benefits.
- Submit your UI payment within the required time limits, along with an accurately completed Payroll Tax Deposit (DE 88). Make sure that each of the funds the deposit represents is individually listed and that the funds are totaled correctly. Entering the total figure only on the DE 88 may cause your fund amounts to be incorrectly allocated and your UI rate could increase.
- Submit your Quarterly Contribution Return and Report of Wages (Continuation) (DE 9C) or Employer of Household Worker(s) Quarterly Report of Wages and Withholdings (DE 3BHW) at the close of each quarter.

Reserve Account Transfers

You may request a transfer of the predecessor's (former owner's) reserve account after acquiring another business. You must submit an Application for Transfer of Reserve Account \(DE 4453\) \(PDF\) (edd.ca.gov/pdf_pubctr/de4453.pdf). If your application is approved, your UI rate will be recalculated and may result in a reduction or increase in your UI rate.

- If you acquire part of another business and wish to transfer a portion of its reserve account, you must file an application within 90 days after the date of acquisition.
- If you acquire all of another business, you have up to three years to file an application after the date of acquisition. However, an application filed after 90 days may be restricted.

Not all reserve account balances are desirable. If the transfer of your predecessor's reserve account is approved, you will be subject to all or a percentage of the predecessor's benefit charges, which could increase your rate in future years.

Voluntary UI Contributions

Voluntary Unemployment Insurance (VUI) payments are allowed in years when rate schedules AA to D are in effect. VUI is not available when rate schedules E or F are in effect, or in calendar years in which the emergency solvency surcharge is in effect.

Common Questions

- Q. Why did my rate increase?
- A. Your rate will increase for any one or all of the following reasons:
1. A change in the UI rate schedule used for all UI tax-rated employers. (Refer to page 1, UI Rate Schedule, for more information.)
 2. A change in your taxable payroll for the three years shown on line 16 of your DE 2088. If there is either an increase or decrease, this will alter the ratio. (Refer to page 2, item 16, for more information.)
 3. The total charges were more than the total credits. (Refer to page 2, Explanation of the UI Reserve Account by Line Item, for more information.)
- Q. Why is my reserve account charged when none of my former employees drew benefits?
- A. To ensure the UI Fund remains solvent, all costs must be reimbursed. This is done by sharing costs and income to the UI Fund that are not directly credited or charged to an employer's reserve account. (Refer to page 2, items 5-7 and 10-13, for more information.)
- Q. How do I manage my UI costs?
- A. For detailed information, refer to the Managing Unemployment Insurance Costs \(DE 4527\) \(PDF\) (edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de4527.pdf).
- Q. Is my reserve account balance refundable?
- A. No. The UI contributions are deposited in the UI Fund and used only to pay UI benefits. The reserve account is a statistical method of measuring employment experience, and it is only used to determine your UI contribution rate. Your reserve balance may not be used as a credit on your DE 9.
- Q. Why does my rate increase when I hire more employees?
- A. The more employees you have, the greater your risk of UI claims. Any increase in your taxable payroll without a corresponding increase in the reserve account balance can result in a higher UI tax rate. If your average taxable payroll increases but your reserve balance does not increase proportionately, your reserve ratio will decrease, causing your UI rate to increase. (See page 2, items 16 and 17, for more information.)
- Q. Can my reserve account be canceled?
- A. Yes. Whenever you cease to pay wages, the reserve account, unless it has been transferred under sections 1051-1061 of the CUIIC, shall be canceled on the records of the EDD after a period of three consecutive years has elapsed following the latest calendar quarter in which you paid wages.
