CALIFORNIA CRADLE-TO-CAREER DATA SYSTEM WEBINARS

On October 14-15, 2020, WestEd will host a series of community engagement webinars to provide information about California’s proposed educational data system, the California Cradle-to-Career Data System. California’s Cradle-to-Career Data System is a new, innovative statewide initiative that will make education, social services, and employment information more accessible for all. The proposed data system will connect education, social services, and workforce data and will include easy-to-use visuals, sophisticated search tools, electronic transcripts, and planning resources for students and educators.

These presentations will provide an overview of the proposed system, and an opportunity for community feedback. Webinars will be provided for the following groups:
